

WRITE ACROSS MISSOURI

WRITE ACROSS MISSOURI

The objective of this course is to enhance literacy of undergraduates and graduate students in the context of their geographic place, reading the works, fiction, poetry and nonfiction of Missouri writers as well writing in the spaces and places that influenced said writers.

DAY 1

Monday 6/5 Depart Springfield on Monday June 5, arrive in Mansfield to tour Wilder Museum, depart Mansfield and arrive for lunch in West Plains (on MSU campus), tour West Plains landmarks associated with novelist Daniel Woodrell; depart West Plains and arrive in St. Louis.

DAY 2 & 3

Tuesday 6/6–Wednesday 6/7 Tour T. S. Eliot House, Forest Park, City Art Museum, Washington University, and Maya Angelou birth place on June 6 and 7. Depart St. Louis on June 8.

DAY 4

Thursday 6/8 Arrive Hannibal on June 8 for tour of Twain boyhood home. Depart Hannibal for Kansas City.

DAY 5

Friday 6/9 Visit Missouri poet. Depart Kansas City for Springfield. Afternoon reading by MSU creative writing faculty. Final dinner and student read around at site to be determined.

Summer Courses:

ENG 565 (3), ENG 665 (3)

Program fee:

$1,390

Travel dates:

June 5, 2017 to June 9, 2017

Deadlines:

Mar 1, 2017

— The easiest ways to —

ENROLL TODAY

Contact

Dr. Cathie English
CathieEnglish@MissouriState.edu

English Department
Siceluff Hall 212
(417) 836-6589

