

RUSSIA

RUSSIA: ON THE TRANS-SIBERIAN RAILWAY

SPECIFICS

Courses:

JRN 300 (3), MED 300 (3),
GRY 470 (3), RUS 297 (3)

Program fee:

$3,279.00

Travel dates:

May 23, 2016 to Jun 5, 2016

Deadlines:

Application due Mar 1, 2016

ABOUT

The purpose of this program is to offer MSU students the opportunity to get to know something about different topics through direct international experience. This topics may include geography of Russia, history of Moscow and its key to understanding Russian History, lake Baikal as a physical geography example, understand the city of Vladivostok as a gateway from the east to the west.

Cities to be visited:

Moscow, Irkutsk, Vladivostok.

Contact the Program Director

Andrew R. Cline
Associate Professor of Media, Journalism & Film
Craig Hall 384
(417) 836-4923
acline@missouristate.edu

Paul A. Rollinson
Professor Geography, Geology & Planning
Temple Hall 341
(417) 836-5688
paulrollinson@missouristate.edu